

Integrated Bachelor's/Master's Teacher Education Program

Among the top public graduate schools of education in the nation, with nationally recognized initial teacher certification programs.

The Integrated Bachelor's/Master's (IB/M) program at UConn's Neag School is a five-year teacher preparation program offering certification in the following areas:

- Comprehensive Special Education (Grades PK-12)
- Elementary Education (Grades PK-6)
- Secondary Education (Grades 4-12)
English, Math, History/Social Studies, World Languages, Science
- Music Education (Grades PK-12)

UConn
NEAG SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

IB/M Applicants Must:

- Apply by Jan. 20 of sophomore year; Dec. 1 for students studying abroad. Transfer students MUST apply separately to UConn by Jan. 15 and to the Neag School by Jan. 20.
- Have earned a competitive cumulative GPA. Applicants with a cumulative GPA below 2.7 must apply for a GPA waiver (See “How To Apply” on website).
- Submit an essay describing experiences that have influenced your desire to pursue a career in teaching.
- Participate in a successful group interview with faculty.
- Take Praxis Core or meet waiver eligibility by Aug. 1 (prior to junior year).

Program guidelines, FAQs, information session dates, and testing information are available online.

Influential Experiences Requirement

Applicants to the IB/M Program must be able to indicate experiences that have influenced and/or shaped their decision to pursue a career in teaching. Learn more online via the IB/M FAQs page.

Questions?

Dominique Battle-Lawson
Assistant Director, Student Support
Neag School of Education
860.486.1903
dominique.battle-lawson@uconn.edu

Sydnee Jones
Academic Advisor
Neag School of Education
860.486.8901
sydnee.jones@uconn.edu